

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

for a week; the Dr. thinks it doubtful as to his recovery; however, we hope he may soon be restored to health.

If blooms are a good sign this will surely be a good year for fruit; the orchards look like lovely flower gardens.

Mr. Francis Miller from Shady Grove, paid a visit to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Russell since our last; he also visited the families of Messrs. Billy and George A. Kinzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Timmons of Timmons, paid a brief visit to relatives here recently.

Mrs. Fayette Voss of near Columbia and Emma Polk of Ben were guests of "Vashti" a part of last week with homefolks.

"Myrt," your words give us great encouragement; we feel when somebody misses us, that our efforts are not all in vain; we have a peculiar interest in you anyway "Myrt," and hope to meet and know you yet.

Mayberry Bros. now have on exhibition their new stock of spring and summer goods, and invite their friends to continue their patronage.

Glad to see you again "Elsie," and hope to hear from you sometimes when you are gone.

VASHITI.

MOWD.

Mowd, April 7.—Again I come with a few lines for your news paper.

Brownie, the pacing gelding owned by D. C. Walters, has been well wintered, and is at present in charge of Mr. Lige Haywood, who says the horse is improving every day, and will be ready to work a mile in 2:10.

We attended the Easter service at West Point Sunday evening, and were highly entertained. Suppose "Zula" will give full details when she gets better. She had the misfortune to stick a nail in her foot yesterday.

Mrs. Matt Hight is visiting friends here at this writing.

Dr. John L. Haywood has returned from New York City, where he has completed a medical course.

Mrs. Carrie Marshall and Minnie Caldwell, of Bear Creek, visited friends here recently.

As news is scarce I will desist and do better next time. With best wishes to all, I am the same.

SPRING HILL.

SPRING HILL, April 7.—Easter dawned bright and clear, and large crowds were seen out at the various churches.

At the Methodist church the Lord's Supper was observed; after which the pastor, Rev. R. J. Craig, preached a beautiful sermon. Rev. T. A. Hardin gave a fine sermon on the "The Resurrection."

The Easter lilies and lovely roses made quite a display at the Presbyterian church.

Sunday night Rev. Robt. Gray preached at the Methodist church.

Miss Bessie Lee of Duplex, was the guest of Miss Irene Cheairs this week.

Miss Mary McEwen of Franklin, visited Mrs. H. W. McLemore, Jr., several days ago.

Miss Lucy White is at home after several months absence.

Mrs. Daniel Briscoe and children are spending some time with the Misses White and Mrs. John Cheairs.

Mr. Frank Moore is able to be out after a long spell of fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pope and children are visiting Dr. Chisholm.

Friday a week ago Miss Lizynka Brown gave a delightful musicale at Beecher's. We did not learn of it in time last week. We are told the entire program was beautifully rendered, and consisted of very fine selections. Miss Brown is quite a gifted musician. Miss Bane, the vocal teacher, and Miss Allie Hardiman, also gave several vocal selections, which were much enjoyed.

Miss Allie Hardiman spent Easter in Nashville.

Beecher's school had holiday Good Friday and Easter Monday, to the delight of the pupils.

Mr. Tom Caperton is here on a visit from Texas.

Mr. Marvin Gray is now with Crutcher Brothers and will be glad to have his friends give him a call.

Miss Sallie Nellums is back from a visit to Murfreesboro.

Rev. R. J. Craig preached at Pope's Chapel Sunday afternoon. Rev. T. A. Hardin filled his appointment at Port Royal last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Walter Jamison of Port Royal, while on his way to Spring Hill one day last week, fainted and fell from his buggy. Several ugly cuts on his head were noticed when he was found by several gentlemen passing. Mr. Jamison is now better.

WATER VALLEY.

WATER VALLEY, April 7.—This beautiful Easter Sunday eve, after having spent a delightful day with Mr. W. O. Johnson and wife, of Turkey Creek, finds us trying to pen down a few items for the HERALD. We wrote up a batch of news last Sunday, but Monday morning, when we looked out, Leiper's Creek was out of its banks. So our letter did not get to the office until Tuesday, and as Mr. Lander had said, "Woe unto all letters received after Tuesday," our little letter was left out. Of course it was not missed, but here goes this week's item; scarce as they are.

Bro. J. D. Massey, of Lynchburg, preached an eloquent sermon to a large and attentive congregation at the Methodist church, the fifth Sunday afternoon in March. Bro. Massey is one of our old preachers, and is greatly loved by us all. His wife accompanied him. They spent several days in visiting on the Santa Fe circuit.

Mrs. A. B. Kinzer, who has been quite sick, we are glad to say is improving under the skillful care of Dr. W. K. Shedd, of Williamsport.

Mr. James Blackburn and wife (the HERALD's "Frankie" of Goshen) were visiting relatives here last night and today.

Rev. Linn preached to-day at Akina's Academy, to a very good congregation. The little lads and lassies enjoyed themselves at Mrs. Tom Harris's on Saturday night.

Mr. John Nesbitt, who has been visiting his loved ones at home, has returned to his work in Nashville.

Mr. Will Wren is preparing to build him a new house this spring.

Corn planting is the order of the day with the farmers now.

ORRESTA.

ROBERTS' BEND AND KNOB CREEK.

KNOB CREEK, April 7.—Our Easter services at New Chapel were very good, considering the short time we had to get them up. I failed to get the program. Mr. Fowler, of Columbia, made us an Easter address, which was very interesting and highly appreciated by all.

A great many of our Chapel folk attended Easter services at West Point Sunday afternoon, and came away pleased with their exercises. O, glad Easter day! how hallowed and sweet is thy influence upon those who try to serve their God! I never spent a happier day than this Easter. I am sorry I can't give a fuller account of our services at New Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson Evans, of Calico, visited Mrs. Evans' mother, in Roberts' Bend, last week, and are glad to see "Chloe's" home this week.

Mr. Sidney Rushton and bride, of Columbia, visited friends and relatives out this way recently.

Mr. T. C. Adams was very badly hurt last week, kicking him on his hip last Sunday. He is confined to his bed; no bones broken, though, I think.

Mr. Sandy Gresham had another stroke of paralysis a few days ago.

Mr. Joe Harris is very low and is not expected to live.

"Chloe" pleads "no time" for writing a long letter this week. With best wishes,

CHLOE.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

MAPLE MOUNT.

MAPLE MOUNT, April 13.—Our frequent visits are not intended as an imposition; neither is it our purpose to become monotonous. But in reply to "True's" request, we undertake the task again to write up the news for this issue.

Yesterday the congregation at Philippi was small, owing to Easter services elsewhere.

We regret to hear of the sad accident of Mr. Tom Adams, of Timmons, at the New Chapel church Sunday.

He was seriously kicked by a mare, but we failed to get the particulars and hope our respected "Chloe" will send in a statement of the accident, and hope it is not as bad as has been reported.

Mrs. Joe Harris, of Timmons, we are sorry to report, is worse than usual at this writing; and Mr. Sandy Gresham of Godwin, is also worse.

Mr. Jno. Fraser, Sr., is convalescent. We regret to hear of the illness of Mrs. M. D. King, near your city.

We hope all the afflicted will be well soon.

Mrs. Walter Fraser, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. T. G. Witherspoon of West Columbia, returned last Saturday, in company with her sister, Miss Maria L. Witherspoon.

Mr. Henry Haven and family of Godwin, left last week for a visit to their native country, Illinois. We wish for them a pleasant visit.

Ere this is in print, your humble scribe, attended by her chieftain, will be circulating among Nashville friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Timmons and children spent Easter at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fly, of Fly Farm.

Doss Fraser, tollgate keeper on the Santa Fe turnpike, no longer stems the floods of Knob Creek. He gathered up his chattels, "folded his tent" and slipped sideways across the creek to rustication above high water.

In order to spread the circulation of your paper, we, after drinking in its contents, mail it to one of the best families of Mt. Nebo.

RALLY HILL.

RALLY HILL, April 6.—It is with sadness we report the death of Miss Bell Boyce, who was stricken with the dreadful disease, consumption. Two years and three months ago a young sister died of the same. Miss Bell was a member of the M. E. Church, South. She was conscious to the last. Her last words were, "Mama, meet me in heaven." The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. E. Scott; burial in the family grave yard.

The bereaved ones have a host of friends to sympathize with them in their sad bereavement.

Mrs. Missie Hardison has pneumonia, but we are glad to report her some better.

Willie Underwood died with pneumonia March 23; burial in the Underwood graveyard; we tender our sincere sympathy to his widowed mother in her sad bereavement.

Messals are raging in this part of the country now.

Wheat is looking well.

Mr. Andrew Ring and Lee Roy Fariss went to Nashville last week on business.

Misses Daisy and Lou Emma Smith visited their cousin Miss Ute Smith during her last week, and to the delight of some of our friends, she returned with them to spend a few days.

The Macedonia Epworth League meets at Macedonia next Sunday night; hope all the members will be present.

Miss Josie Crutcher spent last week with Mrs. J. A. Crowe at this place.

Miss Ocie Wren is the guest of Mrs. Alta Collins at this writing.

Mr. John Doyle, who has been confined to his room all winter, we are sorry to say improves slowly.

With best wishes we close.

wait for the fool-killer to come along and get in his work. He gets a move on himself and evolves some plan to relieve those necessities.

Orlean 2:24½ by Clipper Brooks, out of the dam of Brooksides 2:11½ and Red Hal 2:13½, foaled a filly by Martin's Hal on March 15. The mare and foal are owned by O. Whitson, New Burlington, O.

George Farmer has a good stable of harness horses in training at Cumberland Park. The pacer Calico J. promises to earn a fair share of a fortune on the track, as he is naturally very fast and possesses other race horse qualities. Another good pacer in the stable is a three-year-old gelding by Adfield out of a mare by Belmont Boy. This fellow is strictly trotting bred but cannot trot a little bit; indeed he cannot trot at all; he only knows how to pace. He paced halves last year in 1:09. DeWayne 2:30, Warrenne and a sister to Warrenne, owned by Sam Warren, Spring Hill, Tenn., are in this stable. DeWayne is in fine shape and is expected to trot down in the teens this year. Warrenne is one of the fastest pacers ever bred in Tennessee, and will prove it some day. She was out of condition last year, but appears to be all right now.

Ben Thomas was delighted with the way horsemen admired his grand young horse Rhino by Duplex, dam by King Hal. This fellow certainly has many good points that will fill the eye of any horseman.

George Fleming, the good old negro groom of Messrs. Thompson & Watkins says he was "right in de push" and we believe George was not far off the track, for he had under his care last Monday the two grand young horses, Silver Dare and Springfield, both of which came in for their full share of praise.

The horses sent in from South Side Park were: Erector 2:25, the good son of Direct, and Dallis by Manbrino Gift 2:20, the property of Mr. R. E. Denham. Erector was looking good and was handled by his trainer Billy Harrison. Mr. McKay was also in the push with his well-known and well-liked horse, Hal Carter 2:22½, who never looked better. He was accompanied by his son Claud, who makes for him a fit companion in the stud.

In the big crowd of horses and men it was almost impossible to get the names, breeding and ownership of them all, and of course there are several animals left out that are worthy of notice, which we would have given cheerfully had they been furnished to us.

Elsewhere in this department will be found the card of Messrs. Thompson & Watkins, who are in keeping with the times, offering for public service the two grand young stallions, Silver Dare and Springfield at ridiculously low fees. They also have two good mule jacks that are placed at a low fee. The above animals will be found at the farm of Mr. Dave Watkins about two miles west of Ashwood, who is prepared in every way to care for your stock.

In calling the attention of our readers to Mr. Denham's card of Erector, we hope they will give this grand horse more than a passing notice. With limited opportunities he has proven himself to be a game levelheaded race horse; he is gaited right; he is bred right, and individually he is right to sire not only race horses, but first-class road horses. Don't overlook this fellow.

THE HORSE SALE

Opened at South Side Park Wednesday Under Most Favorable Circumstances.

Capt. George A. Bain opened the fifth annual combination sale of Messrs. Shelton & Dale Wednesday morning. There was a good crowd in attendance, and the day was a perfect one in point of weather.

The bidding was not spirited as is usually the case on the opening day. Some forty odd animals passed under the hammer at prices that were generally considered good, although the majority of the animals sold for less than $100. The general verdict was that they were well sold. The first animal sold was the 7-year-old pacing gelding Princeton, with a race record of 2:19, the property of J. O. Alexander, of this county; he was knocked down to W. P. Woldridge at $100. The Doctor, although a retired horseman, couldn't see a good thing slip.

The other animals selling for $100, or over, were:

Fanny, b. m., property of J. L. Hutson, $110.

Damon, blk. g., property of Col. J. W. S. Ridley, $110. Sorrel mare, property of same, $102.50.

Black Squirrel, property of J. W. Howard & Co., $115.

Complexion, b. h. (3), property of Jno. E. Thomas, $135.

Joe Crog, property of Robert Gordon, $130.

Sale Notes.

The ladies of the First C. P. Church are furnishing an elegant lunch. Go out and patronize the ladies, even if you don't want a horse.

The majority of the buyers are from the South.

Among the big crowd of buyers the HERALD reporter had the pleasure of meeting the following gentlemen: C. W. Thompson, Tuskegee, Ala.; C. W. Henderson, Talladega, Ala.; J. L. Echols, Decatur, Ala.; W. T. Winford, Montgomery, Ala.; A. L. Pierce, Union Springs, Ala.; Gray Hopkins, C. C. Brown, Jim Brown and Dave Wade, Pulaski, Tenn.; T. A. Young, Water Town, Tenn.; Tom Vaughn, Franklin, L. M. Roberts, Murfreesboro; S. H. Hill, Bowling Green, Ky.; H. T. Gartin and W. S. Winford, Montgomery; Messrs. Hilliard and Compton, Troy, Ala.; W. K. Kennard, Grenada, Miss.; W. R. Wood, Montgomery; W. E. Wallace, Decatur; S. A. Stanley, Georgia; M. Fies and F. H. Gofford, Birmingham, Ala.; S. F. Alston, Tuscaloosa, Ala.; Messrs. Alford, Bush and Walters, Mobile, Ala.

SATTERFIELD & DODSON,

Farm Machinery, Buggies, Etc.,

Take the lead with the finest line of implements ever offered to the farmers of Maury County.

IMPERIAL PLOW has come to stay.

They are today in the hands of almost every progressive farmer in the county. Price reduced. Look out for bogus points.

MONITOR..... We call the attention of the farmers of Maury and adjoining counties to the "MONITOR" Tongue, and Tongueless Cultivators. No new implement ever met with such favor with the farmers of Maury County; all who have seen it are loud in their praise. It has more points of excellence, better made, and made of better material than any cultivator on earth; less cast iron and more steel and wrought are in the make up of this grand plow. Our sales are wonderful, will more than double our expectations. Second order now on the road. Stop work one day and come and see the greatest success of the age.

Satterfield & Dodson
